JANUARY BIRTHSTONE - GARNET

The name "garnet" is derived from the Latin "granatum" meaning "pomegranate" because the crystals resemble the fruit's red color and seed-like form. Most people think of the garnet as a red gemstone, but in fact, it exists in all kinds of colors – such as black – as well as many shades of red and green. It can even be colorless.

Announcement!

Yvonne is going to market January 24 through February 5, 2018! If you have something special you would like her to try and find for you, please let us know ASAP! Then watch for our huge Anniversary Party and Preview Market Finds Party in February!!!

Pandora's Baubles and Beads
CLOSED SUNDAY & MONDAY
Store Hours:
Tuesday thru Friday: 11:00 – 5:30 pm
Saturday: Noon – 5:30 pm

Please note: You need to sign up for a class by calling the store at least two days in advance. If there are any specific lessons you would like us to teach, please let us know! We would be more than happy to add a project to our future class schedule. If you would like to attend a class, but can't make it at the scheduled time, we will do our best to reschedule to a more convenient time. A materials list for each class will be available – call or stop into the store and pick one up!
